EACH of us has a guiding light which year after year bursts forth to cast its radiance on our new and various life experiences. These situations may be ones that baffle or others that aid us to better understanding. Regardless of their effect, we have gained fresh wisdom and foresight which will indeed serve as an asset.

Speaking of a guiding light, ours has brought us together from many different schools and areas. Some of us have come from far away; others from schools very nearby like Montrose, Maryland, and Cassingham.

This year another desired goal was reached, an experience fulfilled, for we have at last become high school freshmen. This bears with it new responsibilities for which others in the past have attempted to prepare us.

Last year in junior high school we had our own school yearbook and paper. "The Cub" and "Beacon," the names of these two works respectively, taught us a great deal which will indeed profit us throughout our high school days.

Scholastic ability, citizenship, and extra-curricular activities were among the factors taken into consideration in choosing members for Laurel Club, our junior high honor society. We understood that not everyone could be accepted; nevertheless we tried to do our best with the ideals of Laurel Club in mind.

What lies ahead? So far, we have begun to become a part of not only the work, but also the activities of Bexley high school. One of our first projects as a class was that of constructing a float for Homecoming. Our theme was "These Are My Jewels" and even though it didn't win, we had fun preparing it.

There is much for us to look forward to in the rest of our high school life. The next years will be awaited with great anticipation.

Being new in a school of course presented its problems. Aiding us to overcome these was our class advisor, Mr. Ben Tenwalde.

Our class officers were Sam McGavran, president; Ellen Ziskind, vice-president; and Nancy Samson, secretary-treasurer.

WE ENTERED our freshman year feeling unsure, not knowing exactly what was ahead; for there was at that time only a dim glimmer of light illuminating our way into the activities of Bexley High School. However, it was not long until most everything was made manifest to us and we assumed our part as students in this school.

Now the light has expanded brightly, for we are sophomores and through our past experiences have gained new insight into our responsibilities and the roles we are to play.

We have tried to fit into the different phases of high school life; for instance, in attempting to maintain a satisfactory scholastic average.

Our class has also certainly contributed its share of participants in sports such as football, swimming, track, tennis, and others.

Of course, there is keen competition among classes as Homecoming arrives and we each construct a float to be judged. This year, the theme for our float was "Ben's Stairway to Success." We did not win the contest, but we shall still cling to the old adage of "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

Raising money from various means is important to our class treasuries; for we all try to build up a large enough amount so that by our junior year we have enough to finance the junior-senior prom. Among other things this year, we had concessions at the baseball games and also sold Bexley buttons.

Members of our class have distinguished themselves in a number of ways. Among them are Gayla Eels, who won the American Legion Essay Contest from our class, and Judson Elliot, who took

AS THE sun's rays shed light on many objects, so the talents and interests of this year's junior class are dispersed widely in varied fields.

Our purpose is not only to acquire knowledge through school work, but also to learn by delving into other activities offered to us.

Although we may read in books about different parts of our world, from towns and cities nearby to far away lands across vast oceans and miles of terrain, nothing can compare to actually seeing these

However, sports and traveling were not the only activities which held our interests, but also those of art and music. For a clever and well drawn cartoon, Lynn Schomaker was successful in winning first prize in the tuberculosis contest. An interest in music and singing can be shown by the fact that Jane Baldwin and Joan Williams spent a very enjoyable time at Fred Waring's Music Workshop in Pennsylvania.

Thanks are due to our advisors for their help and guidance. Junior class advisors this year were Miss Maridean Close, Mrs. Martha Liefeld, Mr. C. Robert Myers, and Miss Opal Wylie.

Class officers chosen by us were Fred Shafer, president; Jane Baldwin, vice-president; and Jill Edmonds, secretary-treasurer.

STUDENT Council is the law-making body of our school. It is made up of thirty-eight members, class officers, Student Court, and Student Health Council representatives. Here problems are solved and projects develop.

Committee work has proved beneficial. Committees consist of Pep Rally, Publicity, Social, Survey, Project, and Buying. Each committee has a financier who makes purchases. The Pep Rally and Survey committees were formed this year. The Pep Rally committee promoted school spirit by sponsoring buses to away games. It also supervised skits given by classes at two pep rallies. The Survey committee serves as a clearing house for projects which come to the attention of the council.

Homecoming was the first council project of the year. It began with the traditional pep rally, at which the team and queen were introduced. The annual class float contest was held after the parade. The senior float won with the theme "Big Ben Strikes Again."

The Halloween dance given by the Bexley Celebrations Committee was aided by the Student Council committees, as was the Parent Open House by Student Council guides.

Christmas baskets were filled by the homerooms and then taken to the South Side Settlement to be distributed to needy families for their Christmas dinners.

Torch reporters attended several of the Student Council meetings to inform the student body of the progress. Reports were given of the meetings in homerooms also.

The annual New Year's Eve Dance was sponsored by the Student Council. Billy Graham and his band were present to bring in the New Year.

The Survey committee compiled a scrapbook to be sent to Scotland. This book was sent to the pupils of the Coatbridge High School in Scotland. The book included four parts: social, study, sports, and activities. Pictures were obtained from unbound Bexleos and write-ups were done by Student Council members and outstanding class members.

Student Council was led by Frank McGavran, president; Carolyn Angell, vice-president; and Libby Woodard, secretary-treasurer.

Old projects were repeated and new ones undertaken which contributed to a successful year.

Student Health Council

Debbie Planson led the Student Health Council, which endeavors to maintain and improve health conditions of the school. To accomplish this purpose, the Council led the Red Cross and United Appeals Drives and also made posters for bettering student health habits.

Health Council membership consists of two boys and two girls from each class who are elected as freshmen and serve for four years. A slate of freshmen is drawn up by members and presented to Student Council for approval.

Scott Burns served as vice-president and Becky Riggs as secretary-treasurer. The council was advised by Miss Margaret Love.

Student Court

Cases which come under the jurisdiction of Student Court concern helping Student Council enforce the rules and regulations of our school. The main project this year was that of working to make the parking lot a well organized and safe place. The advisor, Mr. Tipton, aided Chief Justice, Scott Burns in heading Student Court to make it an efficient body to serve the needs of our school and its students.

Other officers were secretary, Sharon Whetstone; and bailiff, Mick Ruffing, who performed their tasks together with justices Doug Metz, Frank McGavran, Bob Babbitt, David Brandt, Sandy Pollock, and Sam McGavran.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll, the international journalistic honor society, recognizes those people on the TORCH and BEXLEO staffs who have been recommended by their adviser as qualified to become members. The chosen person must be in the upper third of his class and must have shown interest and initiative in his tasks on the school paper or yearbook.

Those who work on either of the high school publications know it is a wonderful experience and for them Quill and Scroll provides a goal for which to strive not only for the honor it bestows but mainly for the ideals it upholds.

National Thespian Society

Preparing a successful stage production depends o the diligent effort of everyone involved, from the sta hands to those who have the leading parts in the sho National Thespian Society has been established for t purpose of rewarding these people for their conscientio work. To become a member of this group one must ga ten points as a result of participation in any of the vario tasks necessary to produce the dramatic event.

Mrs. Grimsely as head of the Bexley High division National Thespian was indeed happy this year to w come twenty-three new and well deserving members.

National Honor Society

On March 25 in the auditorium, there was a great deal of excitement and tension as everyone waited for the new members of National Honor Society to be made known. Students are considered for the honor society on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

This year fifteen seniors and nine juniors were inducted into the honorary since the percentage from each class is fifteen per cent of the seniors and six per cent of the juniors.

Although only a few are chosen each year, this society provides an incentive for all students to strive for throughout their high school days.

Miss Marion Thomas is the sponsor of National Honor Society.

G. A. C.

By its varied and worthwhile activities, Girls' Athletic Club fulfills its purpose of creating better physical health, sportsmanship, and interest through athletics.

With Janice Ewart as president; Sandy High, vice-president; Bebe Baird, secretary; Miriam Dornbirer, treasurer; and Miss Love, adviser; this club embarked upon such activities as the annual rushing party, hockey night, and basketball class night.

All G.A.C. members look forward to the banquet held each spring, at which girls are rewarded for their accomplishments in sports for the past year.

Varsity-B

On the first floor of our school in the south hall, a noticeable change has taken place. Along the wall pictures have been mounted which consist of all the championship teams ever to participate at Bexley. This project has been the primary work of Varsity-B for the year.

Varsity-B was established to help promote school spirit and also to provide an organization for boys who received varsity awards.

Mr. Tenwalde, adviser, and Wendell Kessler, president, were capably assisted by this year's officers, who included Dick Marshall as vice-president and Bruce Burriss as secretary-treasurer.

Y-Teens

Ann Gimre as the president of Y-Teens led this club in endeavoring to accomplish its goals of helping each girl to grow as a person, in friendship with all people and in the knowledge and love of God.

Other officers heading Y-Teens were vice-president, Nancy Strickler; secretary, Judy Bone; and treasurer, Jane Howard. Susan Glick was in charge of the program arrangements and Patsy Belt served as member-at-large.

Under the guidance of Miss Trola McCurdy and Miss Janet Bruce, Y-Teens planned activities such as a Can-Can Party, an orphans' party, Links, a city-wide project, and Career Day.

Hi-Y

Basketball, bowling, a Youth in Government Program of the Y.M.C.A., and a Kinder Key Christmas program were all plans made and completed by members of this year's Hi-Y group. One of the most worthwhile projects was that of providing drivers from Hi-Y for the Brother Martin Home for the Cerebral Palsied.

Hi-Y's goal is to strive "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character." As president of Hi-Y, Nick Baird was in charge of seeing that this was carried out. His officers were Larry Kerr, vice-president; Doug Metz, secretary; and Dave Osbun, treasurer. Mr. Joseph Gibboney served as adviser.

Spanish Club

Each year at Christmas, members of Spanish Club enthuiastically await the Piñata Party. However, this is only one of a number of interests in which students may take part. This year books of Spanish songs were compiled to be used at the meetings, and the club also worked to earn money for a new record player.

Members may find a multitude of ways of participating in Spanish Club. Many students act in the Spanish play or attend a city-wide meeting of the Spanish Clubs of Columbus.

Guided by Mrs. Martha Liefeld, the officers were Sharon Whetstone, president; Sue McClelland, vice-president; Linda Meyers, secretary; and Laney Schaefer, treasurer.

Future Teachers of America

One of the most important decisions that we make is that of a choice of our profession or career. Those who indicate a preference for teaching find the Future Teachers of America a great deal of help in providing information about this field. This is accomplished through various means; for instance, observation in elementary schools is offered. Added to this is a teachers' tea given each year for F.T.A. members to become better acquainted with those in the teaching profession.

Miss Opal Wylie's leadership as adviser aided Lynn Burkert, president; Sally Yavitch, vice-president; and Corinne Sells, secretary-treasurer to complete their plans and goals for F.T.A.

Music Club

Almost everyone enjoys music, whether it be instrumental or vocal. Therefore, it is the aim of Music Club to offer students both appreciation and participation in different types of music. One need not necessarily be talented along this line to become a member of this club, for it is open to all.

Mr. John Mazarak and Mr. C. Robert Myers were advisers to Music Club and aided Carol Gearhart, president; Anna Lea Barry, vice-president; and Carol Davis, secretary-treasurer in readying entertainment and programs.

Establishing a Music Club Council was a special occurrence this year, as was the preparing of a music record to be sent overseas.

Art Club

"In life, beauty perishes, but not in art." This quotation by Leonardo Da Vinci is one which Art Club attempts to reveal to its members by giving them a deeper appreciation of art itself. Through movies, lectures, and trips this purpose was fulfilled.

Under the supervision of Mr. Trivella, Art Club undertook several projects which consisted of giving a dance and also making centerpieces for Christmas to be sent to the home for the aged.

With the help of Fred Shafer, vice-president; Darlene Cohen, secretary; and Irene Humphrey, treasurer, Art Club's president, Lynn Schoemaker, led the group in a very successful year.

Book Club

Quizzes on literary material at Book Club's meetings proved to be not only enjoyable but also informative. We all may profit by a more thorough knowledge of books and literary works, and it is Book Club's wish to grant this to its members.

Assisting Julie Pailet, president, were Sharon Freedman, vice-president and Seyril Seigel, secretary-treasurer. Miss Lula Gallogly advised the club in its undertakings, which included the high point of the year when awards were conferred upon the team with the highest score from the quizzes mentioned before. At the same time, an award was bestowed upon the most outstanding member in the club.

Dramatics Club

As president of Dramatics Club, Gary Bloom was assisted by Evan Kress, Sally Yavitch, Carol Gearhart, and Tina Brodsky, who served in the capacities of vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and historian respectively.

Along with advisers Mrs. Janet Grimsley and Mrs. Sara Amos, the club prepared the fall play "Time Out for Ginger," besides beneficial programs and demonstrations.

Dramatics Club also offers students an opportunity to earn membership in National Thespian Socity, which installs new members each spring.

As can be seen by the activities mentioned, Dramatics Club is doing well in striving for its goal of helping students develop an interest for drama in all its phases.

The Dramatics Club members express an interest in the words of their president, Gary Bloom.

The "Melodie Belles" entertain at a Latin Club meeting.

Latin Club

"Around Rome in Ninety Minutes," the theme of Latin Club's dance, proved to be one of the most successful events given this year. Money raised from this dance was saved for the climax of the season that all of those in Latin Club look forward to—the Roman Banquet.

Another occurrence with which members of this club took part was the formation of a Franklin County Junior Classical League Council, which will serve as common bond between Latin clubs throughout the county.

This year's club was led by Joe Thatcher, president; Eddie Goodman, vice-president; Mary Orr, secretary; Janet Wulbur, treasurer and was under the direction of Miss Opal Wylie.

French Club

It is becoming increasingly more imperative in our world today that we gain a better understanding and knowledge of different countries throughout the world and the people that inhabit them.

This is one of the wishes of French Club—to provide an interesting manner for students to learn about France and her people. By this club's programs and projects, such as showing slides of France and preparing a scrapbook to be sent abroad, it has attempted to fulfill this purpose.

Susan Granat as president of French Club had Sally Zox, vice-president and Corinne Sells, secretary-treasurer, to aid her, along with the club's adviser, Mr. Ralph Howell.

"Attention, les membres du cercle français!" says Susan Granat, French Club president.

THE TORCH

A new printing process which has given the TORCH a more professional appearance, an increase of editorials to provide more stimulating reading, a complete news coverage, and a multitude of clever feature stories has resulted in nine greatly improved issues of the TORCH.

Administrative duties were handled by Susan Meyer, editor-in-chief, and her assistant, John Fischer. Mrs. Sara Amos served as advisor to the staff.

Page one was planned and produced by news editor, Laney Schaefer, who succeeded in increasing coverage to the maximum.

Editorial cartoons, letters to the editor, and many interesting features such as the poll conducted on outside activities of Bexley students were only a few of the new projects undertaken by feature page editor, Molly McElroy, and her assistant, Linda Meyers. Susan Granat has succeeded in revitalizing the third page by running "Club Clippings" and some clever featurettes.

The sports page, edited by Fred Shafer and his assistant Alan Hahn, provided an accurate coverage and analysis of all the sports throughout the year. They also handled the TORCH "Athlete of the year" contest. Photographer David Japikse produced quality pictures, while art editor, Mimi Canowitz, did the cartoons and other art work during the year.

The business aspect of the TORCH was handled by Louis Lowy.

Three typists—Margie Phalor, Nancy Nettles, and Carolyn Young—were added to the staff, and the journalism class helped write stories for several of the issues. In addition to its regular activities, the TORCH staff published the "Dial-A-Date" and presented the second annual Valentine Ball.

BEXLEO

The publication of the Bexleo this year has been made with the purpose in mind to produce a book superior to the previous ones. For four years the Bexleo has received the medalist rating from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. This rating set for us high standards.

Eager to begin work, we started early. Ideas for the new Bexleo were under way in the spring of 1957. The theme of "light" was chosen. Plans were formulated over the summer, and the book was actually begun in the first week of school.

Money-making projects are vital to the Bexleo. Subscriptions only partly pay for the book. Therefore it is with the aid of tax stamps and advertising that the Bexleo is financed. This year stamps were collected in student homerooms. A Saturday in February was set aside for tax stamp day. We visited on that day the homes of the students.

We express our sincere appreciation to Mr. Ralph Howell, our adviser, who has spent so much time and effort to make our book a success. We could not have succeeded without his expert guidance.

It is through your interest and support of the Bexleo that we have been able to produce this book. The Bexleo is for you, the Bexley High student.

CONCERT

John Mazarak

On August 4th, under the direction of its new director, John Mazarak, the Bexley High marching band began practicing two hours a day for its fall football halftime shows. Headed by the drum major and majorettes, the sixty-three marching members of the band made a colorful spectacle at the football games. Gay music plus outstanding formations which reflected the bandmen's work combined to make this maching band one of Bexley's finest.

Band members then quickly demonstrated their versatility by changing from marching band to concert band, which requires a somewhat different technique.

Together with the choir, the band participated in the annual Christmas concert on December 18 and was part of the Christmas tree lighting proceedings at the Drexel Circle.

bly on April 11, the band presented an evening concert and followed this the next day again, being privileged to act as host to the State Music Contest.

May saw many activities for the band. The awards banquet was held at the Seneca Hotel. After dinner, awards were bestowed upon deserving members and then everyone enjoyed dancing and an entire fun-filled evening. The band was also treated to a picnic by the Bexley Band Parents' Club. A spring concert on May 27 was also given, combining the instrumental music of the band with the vocal variety of the choir.

The concert band completed a very successful year under the capable direction of Mr. Mazarak, as it played the final notes of "Pomp and Circumstance" at graduation.

Band officers this year were Allen Curl, president; Charles Rose, vice-president; and Betty Giese, secretary-treasurer.

Football

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y – VICTORY, VICTORY IS OUR CRY! This cheer may very well signify the goal and hope each team has as it begins a game. During football season, excitement ripples through the air on crisp fall evenings when students and parents come to watch the game and give the team that extra needed support.

The fortunes for Bexley's football squad this year can easily be summarized by observing their record, which was six wins and three losses.

Under the leadership of Ben Tenwalde, the new head coach, Bexley fought hard and was one of the top contenders for the C.B.L. crown. Although the Lions started off slowly by losing their first game to St. Charles, they compensated by winning their next two games from Logan and Grandview. However, Bexley lost two other games during the season to Mt. Vernon and Worthington, but retaliated by overcoming Urbana, Delaware and Upper Arlington and finally finished the season with a 14 to 6 victory over Eastmoor.

Even though Bexley concluded with a 6 and 3 record and finished second in the league, they were rewarded by placing six boys on the All-Central Buckeye League team. In addition to the co-captains, Wendell Kessler and Mick Ruffing, others chosen were Bob Babbitt, Scott Burns, Karl Kumler, and Sandy Simpson.

To win the coveted title is what we always strive for, but much more important than this is good sportsmanship, fair play, and teamwork. These are the objectives of team play, and in the end the reward for upholding these ideals will last longer than any championship title.

Basketball

Coach Carlton Smith finished his 36th year of basketball at Bexley with a very successful season by winning the C. B. L. championship with a 10-0 record and ending the season with a 16-4 record. This is the first time in ten years any C. B. L. team has had an undefeated slate in C. B. L. play, and the fifth time in the history of the school.

The Lions were captained by senior Jerry Hockman, who led in team scoring and was also the high scorer in the C. B. L.

After winning their first game against Washington C. H., the Lions traveled to Urbana, where they obtained their second victory of the season. The Lions then made a clean sweep of their next five games before running into a spirited Worthington team, who handed Bexley their first loss. The following week Bexley staged a victory over a powerful Mt. Vernon team, which left the Lions in first place. In Bexley's last five league games they outran, outshot, and outplayed all of their opponents and brought Bexley one of the most convincing C. B. L. championships in the history of the school.

In tournament play Bexley defeated Aquinas, Circleville, and Grove City before being overcome by a powerful East team in the semi-finals, which ended in a final score of 51-42.

Bexley's champions were also honored by placing captain Jerry Hockman, Dick Nafzger, and Bob Babbitt on the All-C. B. L. team. Hockman also made honorable mention in All-State.

Coach Dana Swinehart's reserve basketball team finished their season with a 9 and 7 record. Although they had trouble staying on the winning end, they did have many fine players, who were freshman Jerry Mechling, and sophomores, Jack Hornberger, Dick Morrow, Stan Myers, Sandy Pollock, Tom Tussing, and Bill Rader.

Bexley certainly had a basketball team of which it could be very proud and one that secured its end results only by sincere hard work, dedication, and team spirit.

Track

Last season Bexley High School's track team earned the sensational record of 9-0, thus enabling the Lions to become the "Little Three" and C.B.L. champions. This year, under new hear coach Russell Owen and assistant Harold Ridenour, the team also seems destined for success. Fourteen lettermen returned, including Captain Wendell Kessler, C.B.L. 440 champion; Scott Burns, winner of the 100- and 220-yard dashes; and Jerry Hockman, a discus thrower who rebreaks his school record with almost every toss. Also returning are lettermen Dameron, Dennis, Hardesty, Kerr, Kumler, McGavran, Nedelman, Offenberg, Rose, and Simpson. Bexley is also blessed by many underclassmen who are up and coming in the world of track. Prospects include Crall, Hornberger, Thomas, and Tussing.

Much of the strength is centered around the dashes, 880-yard run, relay teams, shot, and discus.

The results to date seem to justify hopes for an outstanding season. The results so far are Bexley 77, Whitehall 41; Bexley 61½, Grandview 56½; Bexley 96⅔, Delaware 14⅓, Marysville 36⅔; Bexley 69⅕, Mt. Vernon 43⅗, Circleville 34⅕; Bexley 79, Chillicothe 45½, Washington Court House 23½.

Baseball

After an unfavorable start, this year's baseball team, guided by capable new coach, Clarence "Pete" Nonnemacher, seems destined for success. Six lettermen returned from the "57" campaign — Captain Doug Metz, Alan Blue, Bob Babbitt, Dave Brandt, Wes Rosenthal, and Joe Schlonsky. Much additional help is expected from Ron Erkis, Sam McCandlish, and Neal Noethlich. Bexley is extremely fortunate this year to have on the staff Bob Babbitt and Alan Blue, who are both all C. B. L. hurlers.

At the beginning of the season, hitting was sporadic but came into its own in the Arlington game where the team plated seven runs on twelve hits. Although several handicaps loom very large ahead concerning hitting and outfielding, it is certain that with practice, hard work, and Coach Nonnemacher's expert guidance, they can be surmounted.

Bexley has had a fine record in the past, finishing either first or second in the C. B. L. for the past five seasons. We are all hoping that this year's team will ultimately reach the same goal.

Swimming

Coached by Russell Owen, Bexley's swimming team completed the year with a four win, two loss record.

Following this, ten boys distinguished themselves by placing in the district meet. At this same meet, one of the boys, Scott Burns, won the 100-yard backstroke.

Next came the attempt for the state titles, in which the relay team which consisted of Tom Addison, Bruce Burriss, Boyd Crall, and Larry Harris took part. At this time Scott Burns also swam the backstroke.

Wrestling

Wrestling was introduced for the first time as an inter-scholastic sport at Bexley this year. With Ben Tenwalde as coach, the team won only one of ten dual meets but improved with each match.

The District meet climaxed the season. Five Bexley grapplers, Wes Rosenthal, Ronnie Polster, Bob Cones, Nick Baird, and Bill Malloy won two or more matches. Baird placed fourth in his class and Malloy qualified for the State Tournament.

Polster received the Most Valuable Wrestler Award and Baird was named honorary captain at the Winter Sports Banquet.

Golf

Coach Smith and his golfers are looking forward to an outstanding team this year. With four experienced returning lettermen, Dick Marshall, Jim Merkle, Alan Wasserstrom, and Dennis Leukart, the team has been undefeated in early season matches. They have already broken the school record while using only 308 strokes in defeating Delaware. The Lions are leading the C. B. L. and City leagues, and appear to have an excellent chance for the district title.

Tennis

Our tennis team, participating in a sport enjoyed by almost everyone, started the season with their hopes set high on obtaining the C.B.L. championship. Although they are a new team, they will surely improve with experience and have an excellent chance to claim this title.

This year's tennis team was coached by Joseph Gibboney, who replaced Robert Duffey. Coach Gibboney has three returning lettermen—Captain Larry Shell, Jack South, and Stan Myers. The four remaining positions will be filled from among Jerry Doss, Fred Abel, Bob Swedlow, Andy Tsitoris, and Jerry Mechling.

Checkers, hockey, volleyball, or shuffleboard—these and many more are offered to an athletic-minded girl of Bexley. Fall brings afternoon hockey games, intramural competition, and interscholastic play. The interscholastic team exhibited their skill, losing only to Worthington by one goal.

On December days we discover badminton tournaments, homeroom basketball games, bowling, and swimming as G. A. C. activities. Homeroom basketball games provide an enthusiastic noontime activity. Swimmers can select a speed, synchronized, or life-saving class to further their swimming skill.

Girls restricted in sports activities find a program for themselves also which includes shuffleboard, checkers, darts, table tennis, and archery.

Winter does not lack a fine interscholastic program. There awaits interscholastic basketball for all four classes. Twelve members comprise a team. This year the freshmen and sophomores played four games; both finishing with 1-3 records. The juniors ended with a 3-3 record for their six scheduled games. Playing their best, the seniors' final record was a 5-1. They overcame both Worthington and St. Mary's by one point.

Excitement and enthusiam are rife in the gymnasium on Class Night. Interscholastic teams of the classes compete for the school championship, and the Sports Queen is crowned. The highlight of Class Night was the crowning of the Sports Queen, Nancy Maneely.

Tennis, golf, horseback riding, archery, and modern dance present a varied spring program. Modern dance, a creative art, offers an opportunity for girls to express themselves through dance. Tennis players may be seen swinging their racquets on the tennis courts after school. The interscholastic team is determined by a tennis ladder tournament. In competition there are three singles matches and two doubles. Opponents include Arlington, Grandview, and others. Girl golfers of Bexley one would find at the Columbus Country Club on Monday afternoons. Here an intramural program is set up. Four seniors and five freshmen participated in this year's nine-hole tournament.

Honors and praise were equally distributed at the annual G. A. C. Banquet held this year at Ilonka's. It is at this banquet that girls receive awards and recognition for participation.
